Corporate or government authors	Unpublished	US	Created 1899 or after	Corporate body (organization or business, or work for hire) - still in existence	In Copyright
	Unpublished	US	Created 1899 or after	Corporate body (organization or business) - defunct	In Copyright – Rights-holder(s) Unlocatable or Unidentifiable	It is often unclear who owns the copyright for materials created by a corporate body that no longer exists. The copyright doesn't disappear, but the owner is unknown without further research.
	Published	US	Created 1924 or after	Corporate body (organization or business) - defunct	In Copyright – Rights-holder(s) Unlocatable or Unidentifiable	Published materials created in the US by non-existent corporate bodies follow the same rules for published materials below. If they are in copyright, though, the owner is considered unlocatable or unidentifiable.
	Either	US	Any	Created by an officer or employee of the US or Florida government as part of their official duties	No Copyright - United States
	Either	Cuba	Created 1899 or after	Corporate body (organization or business) - still in existence	In Copyright
	Either	Cuba	Created 1899 or after	Corporate body (organization or business) - defunct	In Copyright – Rights-holder(s) Unlocatable or Unidentifiable
	Either	Cuba	Before 1959	Cuban government	No Copyright - United States	Pre-revolutionary government materials
	Either	Cuba	1959 or after	Cuban government	In Copyright	Post-revolutionary government materials
