April 2011

Ring Play

Ward Minnis
anthuriumcaribjournal@gmail.com

Follow this and additional works at: http://scholarlyrepository.miami.edu/anthurium

Recommended Citation
Available at: http://scholarlyrepository.miami.edu/anthurium/vol8/iss1/22

This Poem is brought to you for free and open access by Scholarly Repository. It has been accepted for inclusion in Anthurium: A Caribbean Studies Journal by an authorized editor of Scholarly Repository. For more information, please contact repository.library@miami.edu.
Ring play

There’s a
Brown girl in the ring
brown girl with out a ring
Trah-la-la la-la

Brown girl in the ring
Blue girl with no ring
Trah-la-la la-la

Brown girl in the ring
seven years and not a ting.
Trah-la-la la-la

An she
look like a sugar.
So she ask her man
in a plum
why she ain’t get one.
Plum-plum!

Come an
Show me your motion.
and your devotion.
Trah-la-la la-la

Show me your motion,
and hide your emotion
Trah-la-la la-la-la

Show me your motion.
Please don’t cry me no ocean,
Trah-la-la la-la

An she
look like a sugar
when she cry because she end up
in a plum
and in a pickle.
Plum-plum!

There’s a
Brown girl in the ring
sad girl had a fling.
Trah-la-la la-la

Brown girl in the ring
Hope home boy don’t find out bout this ting
Trah-la-la la-la-la

Brown girl in the ring
poor chile tired of suffering.
Trah-la-la la-la
An she
    miss her sugar.
      But I hope she had a little fun,
        In a plum
          plum-plum!

Come an
    Show me your motion
      and where you get that notion?
        Trah-la-la la-la
    Show me your motion.
      and how fast you could run.
        Trah-la-la la-la-la
    Show me your motion,
      cause you know he does drink rum.
        Trah-la-la la-la

An she
    look like a sugar.
      Beat black and blue like a plum.
          Plum-plum.